Bulletin for Week of August 3-9, 2009

A GREAT LEAP

Our VBS was to get started Monday evening. Many of our members had been quite busy getting ready for it, and the final preparations were still being made. That morning when I turned to my devotional reading, the following piece was included in the thoughts for the day. Please think through it.

IT WAS a huge undertaking for my little congregation. We are growing older and no longer have the sounds of small children in our assemblies. So we took a great leap: we decided to host a Vacation Bible School.

We wrote scripts, designed and built sets, planned crafts and refreshments. We spent most Saturdays for six months in preparation, not knowing if anyone would come.

Our advance advertising and registration produced only two children. Our hearts were low.

Opening night, our two children arrived ... and then another car ... and then a third. We started with one dozen children the first night, a small number for many congregations, but a multitude for us. Our peak night we had almost twenty! What a joy it was to act-out the Bible stories. I saw the look in their young eyes as they watched our dramas unfold, and I saw them cling to their crafts and sing our songs at the top of their lungs!

No, not many have come back. We still are small and struggling. But for one week, our auditorium rang with laughter and excitement. Some day, they will recall what we taught, and their hearts will be glad as ours are today.

(POWER for today: PETE NASH, Warren, Ohio)

We take a lot for granted, much of it things which should be provoking profound thanksgiving from our hearts. What will you remember about our VBS? What will you continue to enjoy?

Thoughts From Dennis

For Information Only

The term "doctrine of baptisms" is mentioned in Hebrews 6:2 which is one of several so-called "first principles" (McCord's). Understanding what is meant by this expression has caused different opinions. The New Testament does talk of several types of baptisms. Those that the average bible student might be more familiar with are as follows: (a) John's baptism. (b) Baptism of the Holy Spirit and fire (Matt. 3:11). (c) Baptism in water for the remission of sins (Acts 2:38; 8:36). Then there was the "washing" or "dipping" even "immersion" which was performed when a non-Jew was proselyted to Judaism. The word for this is "ABLUTION," pronounced "a-blu-tion" and is so used in the Revision Standard Version: "...not laying again a foundation of repentance from dead works and of faith toward God, with instruction about ablutions" (baptisms in the King James, American Standard, other English speaking versions). There were many such "a-blu-tions" required in the Old Testament Law. Robert Milligan, in his comments on Hebrews, suggests that this washing (or baptism) was required in the case of Jewish proselytes. Evidently many of the Jewish Christians, to whom the book of Hebrews was written, were still practicing "divers washings" (Heb. 9:10). Let's be sure we are on the right page when it comes to baptism. Our soul's salvation depends on it!
