"And Dwelt Among Us"

The faith of Christ is not like any religion of man. It is not merely adherence to the teachings of a prophet, nor simply acceptance of the philosophy of a teacher, nor even just commitment to the code of a lawgiver. No. Christians believe in what Jesus Christ actually did upon the real stage of life.

The New Testament makes the claim unmistakably. The Word became flesh and dwelt among us. The One who existed in the form of God took the form of a man. He served. He overcame. He obeyed God, even in the midst of the worst of human experience.

First John is most insistent about it. "That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we looked upon and have touched with our hands, concerning the word of life...By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God...And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent his Son to be the Savior of the world" (1 Jn. 1:1; 4:2, 14).

But the significant thing is not only that it happened; the significant thing is that what had to happen has in fact happened.

God had to be made known where alienation from him had produced ignorance of him, so, by Christ's coming in the flesh, the life "which was with the Father was made manifest to us" (1 Jn. 1:4).

The moral authority to lead had to be gained, so he walked in the light and invited us to walk in the same way (1 Jn. 1:7; 2:6).

Sin had to be judged, so "he appeared to take away sins" (1 Jn. 3:5) by becoming "the propitiation of our sins" (2:2), being righteous himself but bearing our sins in his body.

Death had to be conquered, so the Son of God appeared in the body to destroy the works of the devil (1 Jn. 3:8); he was born to keep the evil one from touching us (5:18).

Fellowship had to be made real, so he became a sharer in what can be seen and heard in order to be able to faithfully represent us with the Father as an advocate (1 Jn. 2:1).

If Jesus is not Christ come in the flesh, not one of these things is possible. The faith of Christ holds that his incarnation to dwell among us is not a story. It's a necessity.

With Our Gratitude and Best Wishes

Throughout this year we have often been recipients of the rare brand of kindness, tender-heartedness, and mercy that is found only among people who are imitators of Christ. Now at the close of the year we have been blessed by so many cards, encouraging notes, and thoughtful acts of generosity. We and our families express to all of you our sincere appreciation for all these favors, and we extend to you and your loved ones our desire that the grace and peace of the Lord be with you during this holiday season and in the new year.

We are most grateful for the partnership in our Lord's work that we have along with you. Thank you for the privilege of serving in our various roles, and for the support which makes it possible, and for the cooperation which makes it enjoyable, and for the prayers which enable it to do any good, and for the understanding that makes up for our weaknesses.

"Now may our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God our Father, who loved us and gave us eternal comfort and good hope through grace, comfort your hearts and establish them in every good work and word" (2 Thes. 2:16, 17).

Powerful, Thought-provoking, Frightening and Wonderful Words

(Selected from Scripture by Dennis R. Smith)

John 3:17-18: "For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. 18 He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God." Matthew 10:33: "But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven." John 8:24: "I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins." Acts 17:30: "And the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent." Mark 16:15-16: "Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned." 2nd Thess. 1:7-8: "And to you who are troubled rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels, In flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ." Psalms 9:17: "The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God." Titus 3:4-5: "But after that the kindness and love of God our Saviour toward man appeared, Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost."
