What's Next

We wrapped up our Summer Series Wednesday evening. We thank you who have made it a point to connect with us and to be with us for these visits with our families, and we thank them for helping us with our series. I want to say again how important I think this form of Bible study has been for us given the situation we've been working our way through. I've been counting my blessings with regard to the fellowship we enjoy, and I hope you have been too.

We're trying to be sure that a new opportunity for everyone is coming up next. This Wednesday evening we'll begin posting a class for adults titled "Wonderful: the Mighty Works of Jesus." It's an investigation that will assure us that the Lord can do what we need. Also this midweek, a class for second through sixth graders by Justin will be posted. The theme is "Think" (based on Phil. 4:8), and it includes ways for parents to help. The backyard Bible study for the youth group will now be Sunday evenings at some of their families' homes, and Justin will lead it. A Bible study for college and young married adults will be meeting at announced times at Travis and Pam's home. They and the Ewings will be leading it. And, our YFC families are beginning a round of camp-wilderness-style classes for our little ones which will be hosted at their homes on Sunday late afternoons for a while. Check that Facebook page for info. All this together will hopefully bless us these next four-to-six weeks, and back-to-school time will go smoothly with no worse virus problems, and we can begin to re-enter our in-person classes together at our building.

Thank you for helping us! Please continue to pray for us every day.

Here's my favorite from our Bible reading for today. "O the depth of the richness of God's wisdom and knowledge! How unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways untraceable! 'Who has known the Lord's mind, or who has become his adviser? Who has first given to him, and will be repaid?' All things are from him and by him and to him! Glory is his forever. Amen!" (Rom. 11:33-36, McCord).
