This Week

We look forward to welcoming you to our meeting this Lord's day. In being together, we remember whose we are and who we are. It's also in being together that we gain a sense of belonging and well-being. It's where we encourage each other to go on in love and good works. We're so thankful for each of you who help to make it so. Being together is a blessing that we don't take for granted.

We've finally worked around the weather and completed our three classes on the presence, preparation, and practices of deacons in the church. There are always questions about things we didn't think to touch on, or that need clarification. This Wednesday evening our class will focus on some of them. If you have a question you would like us to address, please send it along to us by email or hand it to us in a note. If you wonder about something, most likely others do too. We'll be glad to offer the best response we can, and we won't, of course, use your name.

Several activities are in store for us during this month. Please notice the ones that are mentioned on the other side of this newsletter. Hopefully, there will be at least one that will be of interest and encouragement to you, maybe several. Please consider each one as an effort to be "welcoming, serving, and growing in Jesus."

I understand we have Daylight Saving Time beginning next Sunday, March 13. Are you a fan, or not? Either way, don't forget to miss your hour of rest Saturday evening!

"...I urge that petitions, prayers, intercession, and thanksgivings be offered for all men; for sovereigns and all in high office, that we may lead a tranquil and quiet life in full observance of religion and high standards of morality" (1 Tim. 2:1-2, NEB).

--Bill

Welcome Visitors

We are honored that you joined us today. We hope you will be blessed by your time with us. We have a nursery with a nursing mother's room and a cry/training room for your convenience if you have small children. Please click on the QR code on the front of the bulletin to leave a record of your attendance. We hope you can stay around for a few minutes so we have the opportunity to meet you.
