A Teacher's Thoughts

A few weeks ago, I taught our Sunday class on giving back to the Lord: of our money, time, talents, and service. At that time, I let the kids know that I'd be giving each of them 5, $1 bills soon and I asked them to be praying about what they would do with it, for the Lord. We studied 2 Cor. 9:6-9 and 1 Cor. 16:1-2 in preparation. We talked about being generous and joyful in our giving and some of their immediate plans for the money were absolutely precious.

I have thoroughly enjoyed having each one of these 2nd graders in class. It has been a larger class (often 9-11 on Sunday). But they have been so polite, respectful, and have participated and listened carefully. You are each raising very sweet children and I have been blessed to have taught them this year!

I pray that they all have an amazing year, in 3rd grade and will stop by the 2nd grade classroom to say 'hello' on their way by.

In Christian Love,
Kim Maples
